

Dissension In GOP Meeting

Arousing from its Rip Van Winkle slumber, as it touched by some "golden" wand, the Essex County Association, Incorporated, with George E. Bates as chairman and charming Mrs. Arrie Goode as secretary, and about 75 other persons present, met in the basement of St. John's M. E. Church last Friday night and listened until almost midnight, mostly to talks on Negro leadership, interspersed only now and then with appeals for the election of candidates of the Republican Party.

Although Chairman Bates first urged that party bickerings be silenced now that the primary is over, and next urged a solid front for the whole Republican ticket, yet many of the speakers called on by Mr. Bates broke out in fresh dissension against the past conduct of the Republican Party, former Assistant U. S. Attorney Oliver Randolph and a few others.

Thomas L. Puryear, superintendent of the Douglas-Harrison Prudential Insurance Company Apartments, denounced in bitter terms the past white and Negro leadership of the Republican Party in Essex County. With clenched fist, Puryear urged that recalcitrant Negro leaders be ejected and that new leaders be selected, or if not, that the Negro Republican vote for the Democrats.

Mr. Puryear criticized the conduct of the 1937 Civic campaign for Governor because some of the white members of the political staff were paid for their services. "I have a copy of the Star-Eagle," Puryear exclaimed, "giving the names of those who were paid. Others," he continued, "were asked to volunteer workers."

GEORGE BATES

Bates as the oldest Negro editor in the State, said he was for the election of Barbour, but against the election of the Republican Freeholders.

Melvin Johnson, introduced by Chairman Bates as a young newspaperman, stated that he was not concerned about the Democratic oppression of the Negro in the South, but that he was only concerned about righting the wrongs of the Negro in New Jersey. He said, "I am for Barbour, but don't ask me about the rest of the Republican ticket."

Rev. Page M. Beverly urged that the Negro Republicans solidly support the Republican candidates. He denounced Ely, Democratic candidate for U. S. Senator, as not having placed a colored person in an administrative position while he was the head of the WPA. He called upon his hearer to work themselves and get their friends to work and vote for Barbour for Senator and all the other Republican candidates.

Former Assemblyman J. Mercer Burrell, called upon at the late hour, confined his remarks mostly to praise of Puryear's speech and hailed Puryear as the new leader of the party.

Justice of the Peace J. M. E. Scotland, retired "Documentary Clerk" of the Essex County Clerk's office, and who was receiving a salary of over $3,000 per annum when he was retired at a good salary, spoke of the early struggles of former colored Republicans for party success. "Judge" Scotland, as he is called by most persons, gave a most interesting account of the early history of the Republican Party in Essex County. He closed by making a strong appeal for the election of the Republican candidates.

Oliver Randolph, former Assistant U. S. Attorney, began his speech with a strong appeal for the election of W. Warren Barbour to the U. S. Senatorship, the Republican candidates for Congress and the entire Republican County ticket. "Senator Barbour," said Randolph, "deserves support for what he has done in the Senate and what he will do. Ely," he continued, "should be elected, would be a close companion of Southern Senators who delight in oppressing the colored people. 'Cotton' Ed Smith of South Carolina and Bilbo of Mississippi would be the party associates and confidants of Ely, while on the other hand, Barbour would have as his confidants and associates outstanding, liberty-loving Senators from the North, the East and the West." Mr. Randolph urged the election of Hartley, Vreeland and Keen as Congressmen. "Hartley should be continued in Congress for his brilliant past services here," he said. "Vreeland and Keen," he continued, "would be far more cordic to their constituents than Towey and O'Neill, their rubber-stamp Democratic opponents," said Randolph.

William Martin, Birtan Bland, Mrs. Viola Todd and several others also spoke.

Assembly candidate Lester H. Mohr brought a message from Republican County Chairman Percy A. Miller, who was detained at Republican Headquarters with a delegation of 200 Republican women, regretting his inability to attend and outlining a plan for a united meeting.

Chairman Bates appointed Thomas L. Puryear, J. H. E. Scotland, J. Mercer Burrell, and Mrs. Viola Todd as a committee to confer with County Chairman Miller and elect a colored leader.

Most of those present were identified with the Suburban and Franklin Groups during the Primary.

At 5:30 A. M. the Sunday School was at the usual hour, with Supt. Rev. G. W. Cial at the post.

At 11 o'clock services the pastor preached an excellent sermon on "Come Unto Me." He stressed the unrest in all the phases of the world's activities. At the B. Y. P. U., which was held at 6 P. M., a Memorial Program was given honoring James Weldon Johnson. At the afternoon service, 3 P. M., Rev. Mr. McDonald of Newark preached for the Lone Star Club.

Andy Kirk and his Cloud of the season. Joy will make their only appearance in Newark this year when they come to Krueger's Auditorium, Friday evening, Oct. 28. This night is being given by the popular Seven Pals and promises to be one of the gala affairs of the night.

Atty. Saul C. Shutzman, who has been retained as counsel for "Linden Bill," said he would seek to free his popular client on the basis of self-defense. Howard killed his married sweetheart four weeks ago as the climax to an argument. Shutzman said he would prove that Howard killed in self-defense and that Mrs. Moore held a knife in her hand when she was shot.

One difficulty to be hurdled by the defendant, however, is the fact that Mrs. Moore was shot in the back. Howard's counsel denied that his client had killed Mrs. Moore because she threatened to tip off police as to some of his illegal activities. "Mae would not call police, because she was not too fond of the law herself."

Police searching the slayer's elaborate apartment found 50 fine cloths filled with over 50 fine suits and accompanying accessories. Three material witnesses have been heard and will take the stand for the State.

Rene Paul In Chicago

PATERSON, N. J. — Rene Paul, of 7 Godwin street, who won $20,000 in the Irish Sweepstakes last year, is said to be living somewhere in Chicago, according to Mrs. Kattin Gittens, his landlady. According to her statement to a reporter of this paper Monday, in his last letter, which she received about a month ago he had not received his winnings. This she doubted very much because he asked her to buy him two tickets for this year's races. She also said that he did not give his address, but just the city where he resided. She doubts very much whether he will ever return to this city. Perhaps that is the reason that he stated he hadn't received his money.

Lawyers assigned by the court to represent the six killers who were indicted for murder by the Fall Grand Jury, September 26th are as follows:

Simon L. Fisch, of 744 Broad street, and Harry Peschick, of 60 Park place, Newark; will defend Gilbert Smith, of 96 Sherman avenue, who killed his wife, Willie Ann Smith, with an ice-pick, August 14th.

Former assistant Prosecutor James McKenna of 17 Academy street, Newark, and Commissioner Russell A. Riley of Orange, will represent George Tucker of 148 Charlton street, who fatally stabbed his wife, Lela Bell Wilder, July 30th.

Former Assistant Prosecutor Michael Breitkopf and James Owens will defend Gloria Williams, who killed Abe Skolnick, white furniture dealer, Aug. 9th, at 180 West Market street.

William (Linden) Bill Howard has retained Attorney Saul C. Schutznann of 790 Broad street as counsel. "Linden Bill" shot his sweetheart, Mae Moore, at 181 Charlton street on September 30th.

James Johnson, who stabbed Minnie Whaley, his common-law wife, to death on the corner of Shipman and Augusta streets September 1st has retained Lawyer Mario Fano to defend him. No counsel has been assigned as yet to represent John Rowland, who killed his estranged wife, Marie Blakely, June 24th.

Charter Is Unveiled

The unveiling of the Charter of the New Jersey Quartet Association, Inc., took place last Friday evening, Oct. 14, at the New Hope Baptist Church, Sussex avenue Newark, of which Rev. Waters is pastor.

Attorney Arthur Coles gave a most impressive talk after he unveiled the charter. Rev. A. Alexander Lewis, pastor of the Union Baptist Church, Elizabeth, introduced the speaker of the evening.

Among the many quartets who participated on the program were the Whispering Four, Golden Chorus, Family Four, Elizabeth Jubilee, Good Harmonizers, Elizabeth Royal Four, Union Four Silver Leaf and Buay Bee.

Mr. A. Peaks of Roselle acted as Master of Ceremonies and the program was given under the auspices of the Union and Trustee Boards of New Hope Church.

Disclaims Paternity Accusation

Rev. Charles A. Gilmore, 46, of 40 Twelfth avenue, Paterson, who was arrested in that city last week on a warrant charging him to be the father of child-to-be-born to Miss Elizabeth Tuttle or Elizabeth, was given a hearing last week and pleaded not guilty.

The case was adjourned until the child is born, and Rev. Gilmore was placed under $500 bail, which was furnished by the Fearless Casualty Company of Hackensack. The complaint was made by the Overseer of the Poor.

Saul C. Schutznann, Newark lawyer who represented the infant, informed a reporter of the HERALD NEWS last Friday that his client admitted that he knew the young woman, but denied that he had any relations with her. Counsel for the defendant also said that the reason for the adjournment was to allow the court an opportunity to determine whether or not the child is really Rev. Gilmore's.

To Give Barn Dance

The membership committee of the Oakwood Avenue Branch of the Y. W. C. A. is sponsoring a barn dance at the "Y" gym on Thursday, October 20th, from 9 until 1. The music will be furnished by the famous Barons of Rhythm. Come as a farmer and have a good time.

Howard V. Aaron, bass baritone, and Ernestine B. Aaron, pianist, were heard in a recital of superior order at the Ebenezer A. M. E. Church, Rahway, of which Rev. J. W. P. Collier is pastor, on Thursday evening, Oct. 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Aaron were assisted by the Rahway Quartette, composed of Howard Hatfield, Roy Osborne, Augustus Gibson and Howard Aaron, who creditably rendered their selections.

A large number of guests of both races attend the subject and were delighted with the renditions.

Miss Gair is a graduate of Fiske University, where she majored in history and education. At present she is on leave of absence from Rahway, and is returning to New York, where she is attending Columbia University. Miss Gair is working for her master's degree in Professional Education of Teachers, which she expects to obtain in February.

Progressive

Social Club

An up and coming club of this community is the Progressive Social Club which recently took club rooms at 246 Warren street. This club is composed of a number of prominent men of the community and originally started out as a Xmas Saving organization. The group proved so popular with the public, according to the response to their affairs, that it was decided to expand this program.

The new club rooms are well painted and the place will be completely renovated to provide one of the most cozy and attractive clubs in this section.

The officers are Harry Vander Veer, president; William DeGroat, vice-president; Wm. Fleisher, treasurer; J. Harris, secretary; Clarence D. C. Hayes, business manager, and Johnnie Alth, steward.

Surprised At Party

A most delightful surprise birthday party was tendered Mrs. Ellen Sumner by her husband, George Sumner, on last Saturday evening, October 1, at their residence, 102 Stratford place, Newark.

Among the many guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Emory Brantley, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Finkler, Mr. and Mrs. William Harris, Mr. and Mrs. "Sonny" Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Wahlstrom, Jr., Miss Nellie Wahlstrom and Mr. Allen Chase, all of Newark. Also Miss Mary Terry of Bloomfield; Mr. and Mrs. Spunkler of Cranford; Miss Arlene Slaughter, Miss Marjorie Mosley, Miss Dorsetta Mosley, Mrs. Thelma Pollard, Mrs. Gertrude Wahlstrom, Mr. and Mrs. Reid, Mr. Harry Thomas, Mr. Walter Arnold, Mr. Charles Lockart, Mr. Julius Mosley and Mr. Milton Purvis, all of Elizabeth.

Surprise Party

A surprise birthday party was given in honor of Mrs. Julia Miller of 22 Academy street, East Orange, by her mother, Mrs. Bessie Madison, and her sister, Mrs. Grace Clarkson.

Younger Set

By ROSE CARTER-MABLE SCOTT

Hi guys and gals, how be you?

We're here and truly hope you are the same. We're ready to spell. Are you listening?

It's Monday nite at Broadway and Panché Dicks is beating it out and Binkey Waters is crowning suit and low, sending the crowd like jitterbugs. maa. have bitten Benny Robinson. He just couldn't keep still. How happen like? quite unusual for you. I wonder what Frances Steele will do those long winter nites, now that Cat is working nites, she won't have her love to keep her warm. Too bad Frances, too bad!

Walter Shepard has finally met Lorraine Carter. I wonder what happened at their meeting. You can't stop me from thinking. Maad Scott seems to like you by the name of Oscar. Why Maad? It is love or just a mere infatuation between Rebecca Newby and Ernest Matthews. I wonder, Nick Mathews, you can get it, and you can get it if you try.

Genevieve Fleming of W.S.H.S. was seen wearing Whitney Parkers blue hat around school. You can be sure Christine was absent that day. Katherine Helms can't walk home evenings from school by herself. Even though most of the gang is going, she insists upon waiting for a young gent named William Crumedy. Oh boy.

Vivian Forti was very interested in the girls that were holding a conversation across from R.T.S. You had better be careful Vivian, as it was concerning you.

Why does George Leak appear most of his time on Broome street. Won't you tell me please? Robert Napier (R. T.) fell out very late Sunday in his new outfit. That suit really is a killer. R. T. I wonder what happened to the flivver that the Lucky Aces used to ride around in.

Walter Wilkie is playing a certain club second flake. Don't do that Wilkie, it may lead to trouble if they ever find it out. Hardy seems to waste his time upon a cute little chick by the name of Aretha Wilson. Take it easy Hardy. What happened to Leaky and Pinky?

Cecelia Bass is hoping that Art School gives a beauty contest so that she can enter. Well Cecelia you had better think twice. My, my Minnie (Veschie) Steele is all stirred by her one some. That's the best way to be Minnie—no boy trouble.

Robert Scott seems to be making a hit with the fine chicks to S.S.H.S., especially the one that is in his history class. It seems that David Garrett seems to be hanging around Jones' Music. Can it be the music David, or the girl?

Frutle is the word that the boys of the hill seem to be using for a certain bunch of keys. For instance:

Little Miss Jane Rickick seems to be the heart beat of Peter Butler. Careful Pete, don't let anyone beat your time. You have some fine possibilities.

Wonder why Oscar Coston is always taking for a certain little knife and key that Maad seems to have. (But I'm hipped that Maad doesn't know where they are.)

Juanita Bell seems to be making Preston walk around with that old low-downy glimmer in his eyes. Can it be that he has fallen at last?

"Just Us, Girls"

Let's chat for a while about our pocketbooks. Is your bag one of the many that are crammed with unnecessary baggage?

Here is a list of things which every bag should hold. First, you should always carry a clean powder puff. Never use your puff more than two days without washing it. You will find that you use less powder and that it will go on much smoother when your puff is clean. A compact of loose powder, a good lipstick and a package of the new lift cleaning pads come next. These cleaning pads can be purchased in the leading five and ten stores. They are very handy and a grand complexion aid, as your face should be well cleansed before applying fresh make-up, and since too much water tends to dry the skin, these pads which contain cleaning cream are just the thing. These things, along with an eye-brow pencil, if you use one, should be kept in a small bag or pouch within your pocketbook.

An address book is essential, also some sort of identification. Last, but not least, try to keep a small vial containing mucilage or nail polish to stop runs in an emergency. Although bags are very large this fall, there still is no reason to add much to this list. If you smoke, carry your cigarettes in an air-tight container, keeps them fresh and keeps tobacco from being all over your bag.

Nothing can detract more from a well-dressed woman than an over-guffed pocketbook.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

A little tidbit rubbed over that cigarette burn on your end table will wonder. Submitted by Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Reid, 109 Wilkinson avenue, Jersey City.

Come on, girls, we are anxious to get those bed clothes and household hints and to hear about your hobbies. Send them on to us.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Mr. J. C. Mellick of Atlantic City is visiting his daughters, Mrs. Nellie Malloy of 94 Wilsey street, and Mrs. Thelma Dwell of 195 Norfolk street. While on his visit he plans to visit many old friends in Jersey City, Paterson and Englewood.

A most successful masonic dance was given by the Sixth Ward Colored Democratic Club on Columbus Day, Oct. 12, at the Club headquarters, 210 Morris avenue. Music was furnished by Jones' Hot Swing Music.

"Beauty Cavalcade" To Be Held Here November 6

If the wagging of tongue around the towns is any indication, a record crowd will flock to the Savoy Ballroom in Newark on the night of November 6 to view that stellar show, "The Cavalcade of Beauty Culture."

It was learned that on said night everyone will get a treat when they view for the first time anywhere a "blonde parade of beauty," which many state, is a show in itself. It was also learned that members representing the Monmouth County Beautician unit of Aabury Park, recently organized by Madame Carlotta Lamy, and of which Mr. Casma is the president, will be there in full force. Although the youngest unit in the organization, this unit now boasts a membership of thirty, due mainly to the energetic work of Mrs. Casma, president-at-large of the M. B. A.

Madame E. Carlotta Lamy, vice-president of the M. B. A., is the director of this sterling show and will be assisted by such outstanding personalities as Mrs. Wilson, New Jersey's leading dramatic leader, assisted; Miss Rosemond Saunders, founder of the Simplex School of Beauty Culture; Miss Dunean Ray of the La Vogue, who will be in charge of all the show models; Mrs. James Winstead, chairman; Mrs. Carrie Ellington of Summit, treasurer; Mrs. L. Matthews, financial secretary; Mr. William Hargwood, circulating manager, and Mr. James Winstead, publicity manager.

Mens Day At 13th Ave.

Next Sunday, October 23, the officers of the church very cordially invite all other men and the public to join with them in observing their "Annual Men's Day" services. Two outstanding speakers will bring special messages at these services. Dr. Charles Lee Reynolds, executive secretary of the Church Extension Board of the Presbytery of Newark, will speak at the morning 11 o'clock hour. Dr. Frank S. Hargrave, our well-known Assembliesman and platform orator, will speak at the 8 o'clock service. "Nuf' Red." Everybody is invited and we know what to expect when these men speak. Come and hear them. Special music by our choir at both services.

Ed. Hayes Lover Of Classics

Edgar Hayes, one of the greatest swing pianists ever to organize a band, would like some day to return to his first love—classical music. Hayes gives a splendid demonstration of his classical training in his recent recording of "Starburst," which is one of the best sellers of the year, and justifies his title "King of the Keyboard."

Hayes is a graduate of York University and who studied at Flek. While at Wilkes, he received a scholarship to study for his master's degree at Oberlin.

Local dance lovers will have an opportunity to hear this latest sensation of the piano when he brings his band to Newark to play at the Criterions (Bambert Boys) dance at the Y. M. H. A., Saturday night, Oct. 28.

His music has an individual style. It is brass with swing. It is really with an undertone of jungle rhythm. It is trombone decorated and melody hard to imitate in brass. It is drums, vibraphone, bass guitar and electric guitar blended with harmony.

Edgar Hayes himself, chording at the piano, with a swing and abandon that accentuates his genius.

The great demand for reservations indicate that this affair will be another overwhelming success and the lists of persons present will read like a Who's Who in North Jersey social life. Reservations may be secured by phoning: Montclair 2-2907, Humboldt 3-1141 or Belleville 2-1110.

A three-piece swing trio that is a sensation in local night club.

Savoy Sultans At Paterson Oct. 27th

On Thursday evening, October 27th, the Annual Fall Dance of the Pals' Social Club of Paterson will be held in Paterson at Lazzer's Hall, Cross and Ellison streets. This affair promises to be one of the outstanding events of the current season.

"The hall, which is beautifully decorated and air conditioned, is considered one of the most modern ballrooms in the East. It is situated in the heart of the city and is equipped with a magnificent bar and balcony, which can hold a capacity crowd, and can easily be reached from any point. An Evening of Swing, as the night is being called, will feature one of the greatest bands in these parts, Al Cooper and his Savoy Sultans.

This group is playing to packed houses nightly as they give their renditions of the latest, hottest swing numbers. Lethia, McCraw, who the vocals at Fisher's, and she never fails to stop the show as she does "You Can't Tell the Difference" and "After Dark" and "Along About Midnight."

Popular Club Singer Wants To Settle Down After Career

Why do girls become entertainers? We asked this question of Genevieve Turman, singing and dancing star of the Dodger's Grill, between shows Saturday night. Miss Turman thought the best way to answer the question was to relate the facts in her life that resulted in her entering the amusement field.

The charming song bird was born in Hamilton, Bermuda, 24 years ago and was brought to America when she was 5 years old. Her family settled in Newark and has lived in Jersey ever since. Genevieve started out dancing with her brother in contests and they were so successful and popular until it was just natural for her to become an entertainer. "That was a lot of fun to me so when the offer came to become a professional dancer very naturally, I accepted."

I have never traveled with shows but have always worked in night clubs. I worked at the 101 Ranch in New York, Four Towers, Montebello Club and since 1934 have been going to Canada. I have played the Hollywood Club, Terminal, Paradise and Montmartre, she related. Other bits of life about Miss Turman that were brought out in the interview were that she is married to Leonard Higgins and lives at 18 Princeton Street, East Orange. She is fond of domestic life and wants to settle down to contented home life just as soon as she makes her name in the amusement field.

Jitterbugs Win Prizes

PASSAIC, N. J., Last Tuesday evening marked the beginning of Opportunity Nite at Charles Paradise Club. On this special night the Jitterbugs will be given the chance to vie for the prizes awarded.

Prizes were awarded to Lawrence Holmes, who won a cocktail shaker; John Austin, table lamp, and Elijah Harris, who received $1.00 in cash.

Arthur Terry, the genial Emcee, did not allow a dull moment. He was supported by that famous RKO star, Speedy Wilson, Myrtle Hutchinson and a host of guest stars, with Emma Hawkins of the Dodger's Grill, Newark, as tops for the evening.

JITTERBUG... ON THE LINE

by Fani Richardson

HOLD IT! POPPA, can't say by the phone any sooner. I'm hipped you called me to ask about the jitterbug. It comes on with the come-on...

At the grand opening the beautiful new ballroom accommodated thousands of patrons from Passaic, Passaic, Englewood, Vauxhall, Plainfield, New York and quite naturally, the Oranges, Bloomfield and Newark players jam-up. They fell in like the busters and carried on like this March of Time.

In the north corner was TED's counter, which kept him, Jimmy Pitts and other helpers on the busy time. While in the check-room, Mr. Simmons of the Lincoln Sound System fame, Vincent Watson, Al Hughes, Ossie Jordan, Elmer Morris, Billy Simpson and two charming young ladies were trying to drape the kiddies their bunnies...

Up on the platform Pancho Dicks and his boys, including "Woolie," "Slim," Merle, "Fats," "Slats," "Duke" and Al Henderson's boys produced some mighty hot licks, and as you know, Al plays the dog house... Do you dig, Jack?

Harry B. Webber and Dewey Aches had the pictures all sewed up.

And now I'll spell to you a few of your buddy-guess who fell out in full fashion, and then I'll

Harlem Night At Empire

"Harlem Night" at the Empire Burlesque Theatre on Thursday is proving a white of a sell-out this season at the Newark house on Washington street and Newark Nights on Thursdays and Monday's Amateur Night.

This week the gorgeous Queen of Burlesque, the lovely Ann Corio, is knocking them cold with her own show, "Girls in Blue" and some talented comers spice up with several other larks and a special Ann Corio chorus of peaches.

Next week brings "Bingo Girls" with the glamorous Chinese charmer, Amy Fong, of the alluring torso, with a company of fundies and comely girls, including Vic Plant, Clyde Bates and Jack Hunt.

The Chatterbox

WITH MINNIE RANGE

Greetings and salutations, everyone... The Chatterbox is again open and bringing you the latest news, which comes us to chatter awhile about N. J.'s Savoy Ballroom. Newark's two sensational orchestras had the place jumping and the crowd coming in like Gang Busters. Looking around convinced me that the place was too crowded. By that I mean I dug Irene Taylor standing in the lounge room with her shoes in her hand and a relieved look on her face. Looking further, I dug the Snooks, that well-known, every-tub-jumper-off timing.

I was entirely convinced the place was too crowded when Snooky Street went home at 11:30, which was very unusual. We take a swift spin and stop by the well-known Monday-nite place, Season, which wasn't jammed, but was jumping as usual. Eloise McClood didn't lose much time in showing the crowd the new town's craze, the "Boogie." I just discovered that Rose Carter attends the ballroom every Monday night to watch Emcey Waters. I'm hipped that all the ladies were out, Thursday nite, since it was Ladies' Night at the Savoy, and of course you gather from that that there were more ladies than gents out. The Jolly Eight Ramblers staged a very nice hop Friday nite at the Nest Club.

"Life" Pictures

Three weeks ago "Life" Magazine published a dozen or so pages of pictures illustrating Negro life in America and would have devoted their entire issue to this subject had it not been that the Munich peace conference forced them to give that world event the bigger display.

All over the nation Negroes have been raving for three weeks about those pictures. We see nothing to rave about.

Practically every picture published by "Life" has appeared in more elaborate detail in the Negro Press of the nation from week to week. The raving over the pictures cannot therefore be because they are all new pictures, never seen before.

Only conclusion to draw seems to be that the race raves over the photo outfit simply because the display appears in a white magazine. The same set of pictures published in a Negro newspaper before "Life" appeared would not have elicited any particular comment.

One of the contradictions of our lives is that we do not appreciate our own accomplishments until they are given the okay stamp of approval. The Negro press runs hundreds of costly photos a week which look as good as "Life's" but they are taken for granted.

The white magazines only lately have appreciated the Negro reading market. Life, Time, Look, the Saturday Evening Post, Liberty and many others ignored Negroes for years until they found to their amazement that Negroes also read. They discovered this only by accident when they found that copies containing stories about Joe Louis sold like hot-cakes in Harlem.

Our own poor excuses for magazines such as Crisis and Opportunity have permitted this golden market to be gobled up by the bigger publications. We'll admit that some of us should have developed this field earlier.

Just the same we are not going to jump overboard because a black face appears in a white magazine.

No Peace Prayers

Evidently the churches of North Jersey did not hold many peace prayers during the recent war scare.

Our invitation to the ministers to tell us of some last week remains unanswered.

That Bus Question Again

Our suggestion that the Public Service corporation improve services on Kinney and 18th Ave. lines into the Third Ward has interested a lot of people.

Especially has our suggestion that a shuttle line be run from Penn Station up West Market, across Howard or another nearby street, through the third ward, then back downtown again excited the enthusiasm of the bus rider.

Down at Public Service they have a traffic genius who went over in a big way when he recently organized the exceedingly popular "Mystery Bus Rides." Certainly this gentleman is a man of keen insight. Certainly he can weigh this Negro transportation problem and take some action.

Meanwhile, it is asking too much to suggest that these shuttle lines be operated by Negro drivers?

News Is The Unusual

The evaluation of news by the colored press does not please everyone but rarely has the colored press any definite means to discover these criticisms directly. Very few people take time to write us letters on the subject.

And of all the speakers imported to forums and NAACP meetings and churches, very rarely is a speaker drawn from the ranks of the press who can uncover what the audience really thinks of the papers themselves. Edna speaking at meetings generally discusses everything but newspapers. Almost at no time is the audience itself given the chance to express its views.

For those reasons the Negro Press emphasizes the news it thinks most people want. A lot of people say they do not want scandal and crime played up, but the papers sell apparently on those very subjects, so they continue to be played up.

Any Oliver Randolph suggested recently that some of our papers cut using any big headlines at all, just to be different from the others. This is an interesting suggestion. It would show study by the editors.

The principle of news importance is measured by the number of people interested in a subject. Daily papers do not have to guess what is to play up because their readers

Progress Under Rev.
Dixon Is Shown

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—Bethesda Baptist Church was the scene of inspiring services last week when she turned aside and honored the pastor, H. G. Dixon, without saying that Rev. Edgar P. Dixon is a conscientious, courageous and safe leader. For the five years he has been the pastor of the church progress has been made. When he took charge of the church it looked as if her future existence was just a matter of time, but each day he faced the task cheerfully, hopefully.

New life was infused. New members were added and a constructive program was inaugurated. Our pastor is not only a great leader in the church, but fills a great place in the life of the community. He can be seen up and down the streets taking his place in the affairs of the community, which means for his betterment.

On Oct. 11th Rev. J. Vance McIver of Union Baptist Church of Orange opened the anniversary celebration, Oct. 12 Rev. H. G. Pope of Salem Baptist Church, with officers and choir and members filled the church to its capacity. Oct. 13 a program entitled "The Thirteen Original Colonies" was presented to the audience and enjoyed by all. Oct. 14 Rev. W. A. Epps of Zion Baptist Church and congregation were present.

On last Sunday morning the pastor preached on "What Think Ye of Christ?" The Elks Lodge of the city turned out to honor Rev. Dixon, who is the chaplain of Fidelity Lodge. Mr. James O. Randolph acted as master of ceremonies. At 3:30 P. M. Rev. C. T. Wilcher of Newark, moderator of the North Jersey Baptist Association, accompanied by choir, ushers and congregation, preached the anniversary sermon.

On Monday night at the reception to the pastor and his family presentations were made to Rev. and Mrs. Dixon by the auxiliaries of the church. Short addresses were made by leading citizens representing the various phases of community life. The ministers of the Newark Baptist Ministers' Conference were present with their president, Rev. H. G. Pope, acting as master of ceremonies. Mrs. Lucinda Branch was the general chairman of the anniversary.

Kagwa Is Speaker

Mr. Ben Kagwa of Africa was the guest speaker at a tea given at the home of Miss Lillian Travitt of 128 Hamilton street, East Orange, last Sunday afternoon, Oct. 16, by the Lit-Muse Club.

FNH Open
Day Held

Last Friday marked the second Open Day at the Friendly Neighborhood House. The building was filled with lovely fall flowers, which were donated by the Girls Flower Shop and the Mothers' Club of the Nursery. Miss Solomon, R.N., in charge of the day, showed the guests around the building. After a most impressive tour the guests were served a delightful repast.

let them know. When a big accident takes place the daily paper phones ring constantly. When a world's series is played, the daily paper has to ask readers to please not call up. Interest in these subjects is known before the paper goes to press.

In our newspapers there is little fore-hand knowledge of what the people really want. For that reason the rule is used that news is always interesting to the greatest number. This rule may be wrong, but it is up to the readers to say it is wrong.

Last papers receive no anxious calls when Benesse C. Grace was arrested. They were not called up as to the results of Saturday's football games. Newspaper editors were not stormed on publication day readers dying to find out the latest development in the Ardesta Wilson suicide.

A man was lynched in Louisiana the other day but no one called up for details. In fact the lynching seems regarded as minor news these days.

Newspaper readers' opinion on the news is always welcome and would allow the newspapers to avoid the faults. It is an often assumed.

Dr. Stuart
Is Speaker

The Community Healthy Committee of Orange presented Dr. E. L. Stuart, assistant physician of the Bonnie Burns Sanatorium, in their Opening Fall Luncheon Meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 11, at Marie's Restaurant, Orange, N. J.

Dr. Stuart spoke on the Responsibility of the Community in the Control of Tuberculosis, emphasizing the case-finding method as the greatest means of eliminating tuberculosis. Dr. Stuart stated that in order to eliminate the phobia of examinations, hospitals, etc., we must stimulate interest in health by talking about these problems which are vital to health in our everyday conversation. He also pointed out the importance of cooperating with those agencies who are attempting to promote better housing and clearance of slums, as reasonable living conditions are very important factors in the elimination of disease.

Among the other persons appearing on the program were: Dr. W. G. Alexander, Dr. Myra Smith, Dr. Spurgeon Sparks, Dr. W. A. Johnson, Dr. W. Longshore, Dr. Isaac, Rev. Bullen, Miss M. A. R. Campbell, Mrs. W. G. Alexander and Mr. Rowan Whelan.

At the conclusion of the service the new Negro song, "Let My People Live," with Rex Ingram and the Tuskegee choir, was shown and received with great ovation.

Dr. Russell Coleman, vice-chairman of the committee, president, Dr. Lucille F. Miller is chairman.

American
Woodmen

Newark Camp No. 2 held its regular monthly meeting Monday evening last week. Two new members were obligated. Members all pledged themselves to try to get at least one member during the membership drive. All members are asked by their Commander to be present at the next regular meeting for the purpose of the Camp holding a business discussion. The membership drive is now on and will last until December 31. The joining fee will be $1.00. A gold lapel pin will be awarded for the first ten members secured. Newark Camp No. 2 is a good located and is holding splendid meetings.

At its last meeting the Woodmen held a big initiation and all present expressed themselves as having been greatly benefited from information received concerning the regular meeting of the Camp held to make the contest very exciting, as Supervisor Hargrett has offered an additional prize to the above prize: an American Woodman gold fountain pen, or a gold ring with a chip diamond. Those securing new members will be awarded special attention. At the close of the drive a musical program will be presented. Refreshments will be served to the winning contestant.

At no time is there a dull moment in the Camp, as their wide-awake and enthusiastic members are ever giving wholesome instructions, advice and sympathetic service. For fear that you do not know who the commander is, it is none other than neighbor, James H. Beckett, whose untiring service has been given to the drive of Woodcraft in the community.

Orange Camp No. 5, with a very efficient clerk, Mrs. Ruth O'Neill, assisting Commander F. Stephens, has done much to make the work going with a harmonious spirit. The officers and members are royally entertained with an indoor vacation celebrating the success of the past Regional meeting. Delicious refreshments were served to husbands, wives, lady friends and gentlemen friends. Mesdames Melissa Jones, Mary Smith, vice-commander of the Camp, and Mrs. Clara Richards are to be commended.

Rieheimer Boys
Club Affair Held

On Friday night, October 14, the Rieheimer Boys' Club of Nutley gave their first affair of the season at the Independence M. E. Church on Passaic avenue. The outstanding feature of the evening was the accordion playing of Mrs. P. S. Hill of 18 Stockton place. She played several selections, which comprised a medley of waltzes and folk songs, and also accompanied by the two soloists at the piano; Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Grant of Nutley sang "The Holy Parents of the boys had shown more interest and appreciation."

Another person of note was Miss Ann Troy, principal of Washington School in Nutley, who graciously accepted to be mistress of ceremonies in the absence of Mr. William Perry, who sponsored the program. She was also the principal speaker of the evening and filled both positions quite well. The evening would not have been as successful as it was if it had not been for her presence. First, second and third prizes were awarded to Sam Harrison. One was for bravery, the other obedience and the other for the highest amount of tickets sold.

The last event of the Rieheimer Boys' Club was a Patriotic Program on the 18th of November, to be held at the Independence M. E. Church. It is in honor of the two colors, Secretary of War, the boys and their now feel that they should make her name known to the public.

The club wishes to thank each and every one who participated in making the affair a successful one.

G. LINCOLN MCGEE, Pastor

The Building Fund Rally of the church will be held on Sunday, October 29, at the Chapel of the Bloomfield college. Broad and Liberty streets, Bloomfield, at 3:30 P. M. The church presents Dr. William Lloyd Innes, pastor of St. James Presbyterian Church, New York City. There will also be a musical program under the direction of Mr. George Goodwine, organist and chorister of the Trinity Church. Everyone is invited to come and hear what Dr. Innes has to bring to us on Sunday afternoon.

The Christian Endeavor of Trinity Church held its first meeting of this year at six P. M. last Sunday. The discussion was "Learning to Cooperate." This discussion was led by Mr. Harry Wood. There was a very interested audience that participated in the discussion. The program for the month of October is as follows:

Bethany Baptist
Church117 West Market Street, Newark
REV. W. F. HAYES, Pastor

Sunday was a record day in Bethany, not only in attendance but in spirit.

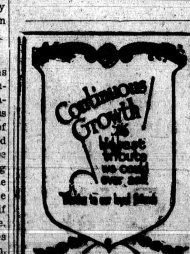

At 9:30 A. M. the Sunday School met and discussed its Sunday lesson, "Reverence for God." Two were added to the roll. Also the Men's Bible Class met and discussed the topic, "You Can't Take It With You." At 11 A. M. the pastor delivered a great and soul-stirring sermon to an extra large and appreciative audience. His subject was "Experience of God in Human Life." Everyone went home benefited and uplifted.

At 6:30 the B. Y. P. U. convened and discussed the topic and had highlights of the B. Y. P. U. work by Rev. Goldston.

At 8 P. M. the pastor again preached an impressive message from the subject "Prayer," found in Acts 4:29.

Don't forget Sunday, Oct. 23, will be Women's Day in Bethany. At the afternoon and evening services Mrs. S. W. Layton of Philadelphia, president of the Women's Auxiliary of the National Baptist Convention, will be the speaker. She will be assisted by Mrs. Isabella Washington Powell of New York, as soloist.

for the splendid way in which they handled the great number of members and guests present, especially when the refreshments were served gratis.

REV. L. B. ELLERSON, Pastor

A very fine congregation heard Dr. Ellerson deliver an excellent sermon at the morning service. Dr. Ellerson made clear the need for Christ in the life of the individual who seeks the greatest amount of happiness in this life and the realization of the supreme purpose.

The young people of the Christian Endeavor deserve much praise for the fine program presented to a very large audience. There are three good reasons for this: a well-planned meeting, a fine speaker and a very enjoyable social hour. Rev. Van Pelt was the speaker and came with a most interesting message. Dr. W. H. Hayes of the Bethany Church will be the speaker for this coming Sunday, and the program will be in charge of Miss Ida Brown of Morgan College. If you want to hear some good speakers and enjoy a good social hour, young people, don't miss these meetings.

REV. M. Q. BUCKMAN, Pastor

The Sunday School was in session from ten to eleven with the lesson being thoroughly discussed. Rev. Buckman preached the morning service, using for a text, "Sir, What Shall I Do to Be Saved?" The B. Y. P. U. met at its usual time and a free discussion of the topic was held. Rev. Buckman preached at the evening service, using for a text, "Oh, Adam, Where Art Thou?"

On Sunday, October 23, Rev. J. T. Pugh will preach at the morning service. The public is cordially invited to hear this wonderful speaker.

Last Friday night a large audience witnessed another performance of the play entitled, "The Heavenly Gates Ajar," given by Mrs. Lucas and her company. It was a spiritual feast and many were revived through the power of song. The play was a financial success, sponsored by the Blue and White groups jointly.

Sunday, during the absence of our pastor, who is in North Carolina, our services were conducted by J. Clinton Hogard, the pastor's son, who spoke from Matt. 12:18. His subject was "The Power of Prayer." Services were well attended at both morning and evening services and also at the Christian Endeavor meeting.

News of Interest from New Jersey Communities

Escapading In Monmouth

By NATHAN O. GUILLS, JR.

HI, FOLKS... This is your ESCAPADER on the line just a-burping with news chatter, so BREEZE along with us to ASBURY PARK so that we can LAMP one of the AVENUE'S SWANKIEST RENDEZVOUS OF "REGULARS" "THE NEW DEAL-CAFE"...

"The here that the jitterbugs go mad and in the midst of festivity: one can see JOHNNIE WATKINS, popular gent of the AVENUE, PECKING along with swinging trays of "TOM COLLINS." With FRANKIE AND JOHNNIE at the bar 'twas like "HOME, SWEET HOME" w.h.n. the following were LAMPED: Lord Chile and two lads from the SUNSHINE CITY, Gene and Arthur, Willie Hayes, Miss Louise Williams, Miss Irene Womack, Estelle Pohl, Mr. O. Thompson of Orange, Eligha Anenun, STRUTTING his stuff with WALKING STICK AND CIGAR, Percy Knox, Mrs. Anna O'Neil, William Shepherd, Miss Carrie Thompson and Miss Alice Williams relaxing in the LOOTHS... NOW that the reason is about over, one gets a better chance to LAMP such OLD-TIMERS of the SPOT as: Bill Baker, Billy Carroll, Joe Greene, Jimmy McGhee, Matthews Clankie, Eddie White, "MANNING" Harry Grammas, Fred Gumphey, Jimmy Coleman, Major Day, Mack Widner and Eddie Rogers... Of course, we couldn't conclude without mentioning the gent who stands AGES with everyone... TAKE a bow, JOHNNY WATKINS... ARE YOU STILL LISTENING?... Here we are about ASBURY, then... The MINISTER'S WIFE of the SEACOAST ASSOCIATION had a gala time at the home of Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Loughorne of Holishton on Wednesday when the parties were feted to a splendid program and dinner... AMONG the many present were: Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Davis of BELMAR, W. M. Parham of FREEHOLD, E. A. Winston, C. S. Marshall of ATLANTIC HIGHLANDS, J. H. Ashby of ASBURY PARK, E. D. Crawley, G. A. Crawley, S. K. Jackson of LONG BRANCH, Mrs. W. T. Hawks, Miss Adeline Winston, Mrs. Mabel Alexander of KEYPORT, Mrs. C. J. Walker, Mrs. S. Smith, Mrs. William Elade and Mrs. Delhia Clarke of SPRING LAKE... YES, 'twas quite an affair... SWING, SWING... Yes, sire-re, the ROYAL BUDDIES' DANCE, held at the BANGS AVENUE GYM on Friday night was QUITE an affair with the RUG CUTTERS a-falling in and out "pitching the BOOBY"...

LAST-MINUTE FL. Miss Grace Ball of Keyport and Mr. Eddie Schenck of Atlantic Highlands were married in New York. LEARNED that Mr. Ben Jordan of New York City, after spending a week in FLORIDA, and recently visiting Mrs. Mary Simmons of Springfield, will soon sail for BERMUDA... Goah! some people have all the luck!... STAND BY, ASBURY PARK, so that we can tell the folks that MISS LUCILLE HOWARD of CARTERT was last night honored in a LINDY-HOP contest recently held at the "CANDY SHOP" in CARTERT... Of course, you already know that Miss Howard is quite a good dancer... BAIL FOR FLORIDA... On the line again, ASBURY PARK, telling you that Mr. Cornelius Frazer of NEPTUNE visited friends in BROOKLYN on Wednesday... AND THAT Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Parham spent the week-end in BALTIMORE at the NAT'L NEGRO CONGRESS... ALSO that Mr. Clarence and Mary Jennings, former teachers at WILLIAM ALEXANDER in BALTIMORE have quite a son in Clarence Watts Jennings, Jr. MORRIS YEARS TO JUNIOR... CHATTED with Mrs. Joseph C. Moore of the "CAPOUL" on Thursday nite, also Frank Powell and "Bob" Causby, former NEWARKITES... Spotted Miss Alma Randolph, Mrs. Mary Harris and Miss Sarah Randolph... HEARD that the BEAUTIFULS of the Avenue are going to miss Mr. William Stooks of the "IMPERIA" when he CHECKS out to resume duties at MORTON'S in PHILLY... We didn't know that Miss Katherine Adolphus was such a dancer... NUP ASBURY, because we're now DIGGING RED BANK to tell the folks that the BINGO parties held at the "T" every Friday nite are becoming the talk of the town... YES, and glimpsing our JOTTINGS we note that MATAWANA was well represented on Friday nite in Miss Florence Conover, Miss Olive Sydnam and Mr. Johnny Harrison... Miss Sydnam, you know, BINGOED herself a PRIZE... WHAT LUCK!... It won't happen Miss Nell Harris of Red Bank, because we're telling the folks right now that you entertained Mr. Howard Baldwin of New York City on Sunday evening... Miss Harris is a newcomer, yes, she's from KENTUCKY... Well, talk to us because we note that Mr. and Mrs. William H. Thompson of KINGSTON, N. J., had a RAMPING time at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith... The name is MONROE CAGLE, if you please, and he's RED BANK'S latest NEW JERSEY HERALD NEWS READER... We think that RED BANKERS have the "AL THING" in MR. WILLIAM HOWARD JACKSON, who has recently secured a copyright for his "MY BONG-SKIN BABY"...

Mr. Peter McQuarters of 519 Jackson avenue has been confined to his home for a few days on account of sickness.

The Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance of Jersey City and vicinity held its regular monthly meeting Oct. 11 at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Zion Church on Virginia avenue. The Rev. D. L. Miller, the newly appointed pastor of the Calvary C. M. E. Church on Oak street was welcomed to the city and to the membership of the Alliance by the president, Mrs. Ida E. Brown, president of the Women's Federation, presented some very vital matters to the clergy. The Alliance went on record favoring the taking a more active part in the affairs of the community.

Misses Margaret Webb, Lucille Lyons and Dorothy Dixon of New York were the week-end guests of Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Dixon last week.

The ministers of Jersey City were well represented at the Morgan-Lincoln football games last Saturday at Lincoln University. I saw Reverends Popk, Dixon, Osborne and Clark on the campus witnessing the game.

Mrs. Catherine Peterson of Edge avenue spent a few days visiting her daughter, Mrs. Rosa Johnson of Asbury Park.

Rev. J. M. Hoggard and son, Aaron, along with a friend, Mr. E. Jennings of Nutley are spending some time in North Carolina. They will return Sunday, Oct. 28.

It is gratifying to see the Rev. W. W. Harper, the pastor of Church of Incarnation, who has been ill for several weeks, fully recovered and back to his duties. Miss Carmen Hicks of 116 Harrison avenue spent the week-end in Morristown at the home of Mrs. L. A. Exander, a friend and classmate at Jersey City Normal School.

Lucky Joseph "Punch" Brown of 10 Oak street, who attended the swanky Futuristic Club dance Saturday at the Bradford Ballroom in Brooklyn, bought the last twenty-five cent raffle ticket and won fifty dollars worth of high-grade beverages.

Miss Jean Cheeks, Miss Margaret Finley, William Thomas, Arthur Upperman and Bus Haygood attended the party of Miss Alice Satchelle of Spring street, Morristown, Friday night. Later the party continued to the nite club of Mr. Satchelle, where the jitterbugs had a jumping good time. Mr. Bus Haygood won the "boogy dance" championship and prize.

Tuberculosis films were shown at the Thirdfield M. E. Church at Rose and Orient avenues Sunday night. Dr. M. Carpenter was the speaker.

Friday night at the Lincoln High School auditorium William Bowers, prominent Negro baritone singer, sang to a fairly large audience.

Mrs. Wheaton of 92 Virginia avenue held a meeting Wednesday night of the local beauticians.

Mrs. Wiggins of 30 Belmont avenue is attending the funeral of her father in Florida. Mrs. Wiggins plans to remain a week at her home in Florida before returning to the city.

Miss Theramony Conn of Forrest street was buried Tuesday from Monumental Baptist Church.

Hackensack

The following journeyed to Jersey City last Friday night to witness "Heavenly Gates Ajar" at St. Mark's Church: Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Templeton and daughter, Esther, Mr. and Mrs. J. Young and son, Hubert, and daughter, Louise. Also Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hammond and Mr. and Mrs. William Floyd.

We are sorry to learn that Mrs. Frank Williams of 37 Bordin place is still ill. Her condition is such that she had to give up all social and church activities to the regret of her many friends. We hope that she will soon regain strength and health that she might go back to her many duties.

It is to the regret of the many friends of Mrs. Georgia Young of 194 Berdan place to learn of her illness. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Silas Anderson of 37 North fourth avenue, Mrs. Coleman attend the recent Presbyterian Council and enjoy the distinction of being one of the two living charter members of the Presbyterian Church in Jersey City.

Miss Margaret Gross of 683 Communiplace avenue was a most charming and gracious hostess to the "I-Double-You-Bridge Club." This home was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, daisies and autumn leaves. A delicious repast followed the usual round of bridge. Prizes were won by the following: Mrs. Alfred F. Feg, guest; Mrs. Anna Randolph and Mrs. Olivia Heidrich club prizes. Mrs. L. D. McLean was also a guest.

Bitter Grid Wars Coming This Week

GAMES THIS WEEK
HAMPTON VS. LINCOLN AT LINCOLN
BLUEFIELD VS. MORGAN AT BLUEFIELD
N. C. COLLEGE VS. ST. AUGUSTINE AT DURHAM
SMITH VS. SHAW AT CHARLOTTE
UNION VS. ST. PAUL AT RICHMOND
This should be a week of bitter battles in the C. I. A. A. The game of most interest to local fans will pit a better-than-usual Lincoln team against a fast-moving Hampton eleven at Lincoln. This game should provide plenty of thrills and some high-class football.
The next best-looking contest pits Morgan against one of those good Bluefield eleven. The West Virginia team held a highly touted Va. State team scoreless and promises to give the Bears a good going over. This game will also enable followers of State and Morgan to get a line on their respective teams for the meeting between these schools on Thanksgiving Day.
In the other battles N. C. College is favored to beat St. Augustine. Shaw should wallop Smith and Union should have a tie or win at the expense of St. Paul.

Lewis-Gainer Go Friday

Al Gainer will be given an opportunity to lift the lightweight crown from the head of John Henry Lewis Friday night when they meet in a 15 round bout for the title. Lewis, despite his poor showing in recent bout, is a favorite to retain the championship.

Johnson Stars

Nate Johnson, star back of East Orange High, continued his brilliant playing last Saturday as he scored two touchdowns against Plainfield to lead his team to victory. Johnson has been a sensation all season and is the main cog in the East Orange offensive machine.

Roman Brothers Score

The Roman brothers of South Orange have made history at Columbia High. Probably the most outstanding was Mike, who was second high scorer in the State last year and is now on the varsity squad at Lincoln. Mike was a four-letter man in football, basketball, baseball and hockey. Art is a three-letter man in basketball, football and basketball. The other brother, Dan, was captain and star of the 1934 hockey team.

Ryan Looms All-American

Mike Ryan, former Central High star, is definitely All-American material this year. Ryan is a stone-wall on defense, spearhead of the offensive and does the kicking off and placing kicking for points after touchdowns. Mike is also co-captain of the Bears. He and Horace Koe, former Barringer star, have caused defensive ends plenty of money in their blocking.

2 Systems At Game

Kennel Rivers, pupil of Lou Little of Columbia, and Eddie Hart, protégé of Andy Kerr of Colgate, had their own edition of rivalry-Double V, straight football at Lincoln Saturday. Lincoln used the Columbia offense and Morgan the Colgate style of attack, as the Andy Kerr system was victorious twice Saturday-Colgate beat Columbia and Morgan beat Lincoln.

Sowell With Bombers

Bo Sowell, former captain, Fred Truck of Newark and "Flip" Koe of the famous Koe brothers, played with the Colonial Bomb Bombers against the White Plains Giants last Sunday. The Bombers won 14-0 on a 45-yard run by Dave Meyers, former N. Y. U. star, and a 50-yard punt by Rogers, former New York High School star.

Keep Puncting With Pedro Lombardo

Well, it looks like the fight between Vincent Lombardo and Ed Cochrane will be a close one. Lombardo received such a severe cut over his eye in his recent battle with Paulie Walker in Trenton that he will be out of action for at least a month. Since the Elizabeth Red and Cochrane secured, how about Tipmy Larkin or Maxie Fisher? A bout with either one of these lads would pack any fight club in the city.
Officer 340 is extremely interested in Willie Harris, 135-pound youngster, who has created a sensation in the amateur ranks. He believes that if Willie gets a chance he will develop into the best 135-pounder in the State. Here's wishing you plenty of luck, Willie.
My informant tells me that Don Bluer of Pompton Lakes has a new light heavyweight sensation in the person of Freddie Wilson, Pittsburgh, Pa. He is expected to make his debut in New York next week. Keep your eye on him, he is going places.
Come on, Billie Jones, and train hard for your bout with Joe O'Garty, for we are pulling for you.
Q. Did Billy Jones ever fight James J. Braddock? A. Yes, he fought him in 1930 and 1931 and won both bouts.
Q. How old is Charlie Gordon? A. 22.
Q. Is Billie Osgood of the R. T. T. interested in sports? A. Yes, he is a No. 1 bogger and a real sportsman.

Stars That Shine

SIDNEY SINGER
Hitting to unexcelled heights and carrying his team along this brilliant back of Syracuse, passed a Cornell team groggy and led his team to 10-14 upset win. Trailing going into the last quarter by a score of 10-6, Singh pitched a perfect strike to Babe Hath, good for 28 yards and a score. A few moments later he threw two more passes to the same player that covered 70 yards and another tally. Shortly after the kick-off Syracuse gained possession of the ball on an anticipated lateral and Singh then threw the clincher, a 35-yard pass, to Allen that was good for the winning touchdown. It was the greatest exhibition of accurate passing seen on any gridiron in America this season.
BRID HOLLAND was on the losing side for the first time this year, but still showed plenty of class. Holland caught one pass in the first quarter for a 25-yard gain and he was a tower of strength on defense.
ED WILLIAMS again was in the lineup against North Carolina and played his usual consistent game. This marks the second year he has played against the Southerners and there was no display of bad feelings on the part of the Harbours against the Southerners. Coach Mark Stinson of N. Y. U. is one man who will not submit to Southern prejudice.

Stars That Shine

AL ROBINSON, Trenton High back, sped 57 yards in the closing moments to gain a 6-6 tie for his school against Long Branch.
OSCAR GIVENS caught the winning touchdown pass as Linden upset Dover 6-0.

Jersey Boys Team Stars

New Jersey boys are pointing on both Lincoln and Morgan football teams this year. In their starting lineup last Saturday Morgan had: "Duke" Smith of Paterson, end; Brown of Englewood, tackle; Maso Ryan, New York guard; Edley, Albany, fullback; Madden, Mt. Royal, end; Gordon, Mt. Royal, quarterback; and Koe, Newark halfback. Other Jersey boys on the squad are Hampton and Thredgill of Newark and "Dunkie" Hill of Orange. Shade Nutley, end; Peary, Maplewood, guard; Boldey, Atlantic City, tackle; J. Brown, quarter; and Monty Irving, halfback. Orange, were the Jersey boys in the Lincoln starting lineup.
Other Jerseyites on the L.S. squad are Alston Newark; M. Smith, Maplewood; P. Holey, Camden; P. Murray, Trenton; J. Morris, Wildwood; W. Peary, Mt. Royal; K. Gilmore, Newark and Mike Roman of South Orange.

Check Trojan Advance

PETERSBURG, Va.—The invading Trojans gained a moral victory on Roger's field October 15, upsetting the overconfident Virginia A. & M. team to a 7-0 score. Howard Salazar, Jr., regulated the advance of the goal-bound Trojans, stopping them on the one yard line and gaining possession of the ball on three occasions. Only once did the Blson defensive break, thereby enabling the Trojans to score.

Early in the second quarter after two incomplete passes and on exchange of punts, the Trojans seemed to have regained their usual form. Through a series of line plunges with Cobb, Echols and Blase carrying the ball, State pushed the ball over the goal line, making her only touchdown. Half place kicked for the extra point. State saw-sawed during the remainder of the game bringing the ball to the goal line at several other times to be pushed by the Howard wall.

N. J. Boys Star On Grid Teams

Boys from North Jersey were making good in the CIAA include "Little Train" Griffin of Cape May who is captain of Kingston-Alton system of Lincoln is captain of A. T. John Mack Brown is captain of Lincoln, Maso Ryan, of Newark and "Pickles" Gordon of Mount Royal are co-captains of Morgan. Other boys who are starring on CIAA teams are Gowan, Bunch and "Fats" Gilmore at Shaw; Alexander, Walker, Nance at A. & T. Echols, Hurst, Barbee and Nelson at Va. State.
George Burrows, former West-orn Reserve star, scored the lone touchdown as the Newark Torpedoes defeated the New Rochelle Bulldogs in an exhibition game at City Stadium Sunday. George has been playing a bang up game for the Torpedoes and is a strong favorite with local grid fans.

By BO SOWELL
LINCOLN UNIVERSITY:—An alert and powerful Morgan College eleven swept a confused Lincoln team off the field today before 5,000 rabid fans. It was Homecoming day here but the old grads who had come to witness the first defeat of a Morgan team in 51 games were doomed to disappointment as Lincoln was outclassed in every department of the game.
Battling in even terms for the first period, the vaunted Morgan defense broke through to block a punt by Johnnie Mack Brown and Watkins recovered the ball in the Lincoln territory. Smith broke clear on a reverse and crossed pay-off dirt standing up. Morgan converted for the extra point and the score at half time was 7-0.
Morgan completely dominated the play in the second half and again made good the extra point pushed over two more scores, and gave the Bears a 21-0 victory.
